Report on Savitribai Phule Jayanti

Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law celebrated the 186th Birth Anniversary of Krantiyoti, Pioneer of Women Empowerment sensation Savitribai Phule on 3rd January 2019 at 9:30 am in the college classroom.

The event was conducted during the lecture hours in the college class room with the collaboration of the students both from BLS and LL.B. It started with the ritual of lighting of the lamp by In-charge Principal Madam Adv. Madhura Kalamkar.

The event was anchored by Assistant Professor Mr.Amar Salve, followed by a welcome speech delivered by Principal Madam. She expressed her views on Savitribai Phule as a woman social reformer and the 'first woman teacher' of British India. She brought to light the efforts taken by this revolutionary which was starting the first girl's school in Pune.

Since it was an open talk event for all the students; the privilege was accepted by them. The first student speaker was Ms Poonam Verma from F.Y.LL.B. She spoke on the relevance of the status of women in the present society. The second student speaker was Mr Subhash Gouniyal from F.Y.LL.B. He spoke on the struggle faced and the revolution that Savitribai Phule brought for the country.

Among the teaching faculty, Ms Eveta Fernandes spoke on the status of women from the vedic times to the present, stressing on the keywords such as sensitivity and humbleness towards the understanding of the situations, which are required in the present society to protect and empower both men and women as they both are dependent on each other.

For the said program In-charge Principal Madam Adv. Madhura Kalamkar, Assistant Professor Mr Amar Salve, Lecturers Ms Dipali Khavle, Ms Eveta Fernandes, visiting faculty lecturers Ms. Alpa Somaiya and Ms. Priyanka Singh were present. The program concluded with the closing speech given by the In-charge Principal Madam and a vote of thanks by Assistant Professor Mr Amar Salve. The program met with success through its motto of imparting knowledge and information in the students and was greatly appreciated by everyone who was present.
