Constitution Day - 26th November 2021

Following the annual tradition of celebration of Constitution Day, the college commemorated the day on 26th November 2021. This year the enthusiasm among the students was very high as the celebration was offline. The Programme was conducted by the student council and other student volunteers. It was very well organized under the fine control and valuable guidance of Honorable Principal madam.

Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the architect of the Indian Constitution had said - "However good a constitution may be, if those who are implementing it are not good, it will prove to be bad." This is very well quoted as the Makers of the Constitution had already put their tireless efforts in framing and providing us a very beautiful and comprehensive Constitution of India which is worldwide recognized. The motto of celebrating Constitution Day is to pay tribute to all those peoples who have contributed in the process of formulation of the Constitution of India.

Welcome speech given by our General secretary of the College, Ms. Sharanya Vast. In this she had said about the purpose of celebrating this day. Similarly, one video also played in the memory of all Martyrs of the 26/11 attack. Opening speech given by Asst. Prof. Amar Salve. Our Honorable Principal Madam, Dr. Mrs. Madhura Kalamkar also addressed our students on this occasion. In Principal Madam's Address, she had explained the significance of the day through highlighting different provisions of the Constitution of India. Even Principal madam spoke about the amendment provisions with the help of relevant case laws. Our Honorable Director of Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti, Dr. Usha Mukundan Madam also gave a very thoughtful message to our students. In Madam's address, she had mentioned the importance of professional ethics and advocate's responsibility towards the society.

On this occasion the College had organized various intra-class competitions through offline mode along with following all social distancing norms. These competitions are Debate Competition, Essay Competition, Elocution Competition, Legal Quiz Competition, Poster Making Competition and different knowledge based competitions like Words search and Crosswords Competition. Students participated in these competitions wholeheartedly and showed very good spirit while playing fair. All winners of these competitions were appreciated with the certificates including participants also. At the end of the day, Vote of thanks was delivered by our Treasurer of the Student Council of our College, Ms. Reena Kotian.
