REPORT ON UNDERSTANDING COURT PROCEEDINGS: A LEGAL AWARENESS PROGRAM

The awareness program organised by HVPS Community Engagement Cell held on 12th April 2023 on "Understanding Court Proceedings: A Legal Awareness Program". Advocate Mahendra Gaikwad recently conducted a legal awareness program titled "Understanding Court Proceedings" for law students at the Thane District and Session Court. This initiative aimed to provide aspiring legal professionals with a thorough understanding of judicial processes. Adv. Gaikwad explained various aspects of court procedures, including case filing, court etiquette, and the roles of different legal practitioners. Through interactive sessions and mock trials, students gained practical insights into courtroom operations. The program clarified common misconceptions and offered guidance on effectively navigating the legal system. Students valued the opportunity to learn from a seasoned professional, appreciating the program's significant impact on their legal education. Adv. Gaikwad's efforts were crucial in bridging the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application, taking a significant step towards equipping future lawyers with essential courtroom skills and legal literacy.

Program Outcome

The "Understanding Court Proceedings" program successfully provided law students with a comprehensive understanding of judicial processes. Participants learned about case filing, court etiquette, and the roles of various legal practitioners. Interactive sessions and mock trials offered practical insights into courtroom operations, addressing common misconceptions about the legal system. The program was highly appreciated by students, enhancing their legal education by bridging theoretical knowledge with practical application. Adv. Mahendra Gaikwad's initiative effectively equipped future lawyers with essential courtroom skills and legal literacy, marking a significant step in their professional development.
