REPORT ON AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON SHIP-SOURCED MARINE POLLUTION

The awareness program organised by HVPS Community Engagement Cell held on 10th March 2023 on “Awareness Programme on Ship-Sourced Marine Pollution”. The session on Ship-Sourced Marine Pollution, led by Dr. Abhay Singh Thakur, Assistant Professor of Law and esteemed member of the Board of Management at Gujarat Maritime University, guided participants through the complex legal landscape of marine pollution. Dr. Thakur's expertise illuminated the intricacies of liability and compensation frameworks, highlighting key international conventions and legal precedents. Through engaging discussions and case analyses, attendees explored evolving legal strategies to address ship-sourced pollution. The day concluded with participants gaining a heightened awareness of the legal implications and a strong commitment to advancing maritime environmental protection initiatives.

Program Outcome

The Ship-Sourced Marine Pollution session successfully deepened participants' understanding of the legal complexities surrounding marine pollution. Dr. Abhay Singh Thakur's expert guidance highlighted critical aspects of liability and international conventions. Attendees engaged in meaningful discussions and case analyses, learning about evolving legal strategies to combat ship-sourced pollution. The program fostered a heightened awareness of legal implications and inspired a commitment to support maritime environmental protection. Participants left equipped with valuable insights and a resolve to contribute effectively to marine conservation efforts.
