INTER -COLLEGIATE BOOK REVIEW WRITING COMPETITION

'April 23 is a symbolic date in world literature. This is the date on which several major writers, William Shakespeare, Miguel de Cervantes and Inca Garcilaso de la Vega, died. To pay tribute to books and authors around the world on this date, everyone is encouraged to access books' by celebrating 'World Book and Copyright Day'.

The college Library Committee jointly with IQAC cell organized "Intercollegiate Book Review Writing Competition" on account of World Book and Copyright Day 2023. Writing a book review is an activity that can develop a variety of skills.. The aim of the competition was to develop the influence of reading and writing to increase the enjoyment of books and reading.

The various college students participated in this competition. Apart from Law College, students of Arts College also participated. 19 students from various colleges registered themselves for the competition.

The program was conducted on 24th April 2023 at MPSS hall of the college. Dr. Shubhangi Vedak, librarian, R.J. College, Ghatkopar, was invited as a Judge for this competition. Twelve registered participants were present on the day. The program started with the lighting of the lamp. Further event coordinator Ms. Neha Naik (Librarian) made the opening speech. The Principal madam (Dr. Mrs. Madhura Kalamkar) and the judge of the competition addressed the audience with their motivational words.

Participants submitted hard copies of book reviews and made oral presentations as per the competition rules. All participants brought a reviewed book during the presentation. The winners of the competition were decided on the basis of the marks awarded by the appointed judge. Two winners were selected from among the participating contestants who were awarded Certificates of Appreciation along with the prize and 3 more separate Certificates of Appreciation were also awarded on the request of Madam. All participants were felicitated with certificates of participation.
