Report on Guru Purnima prepared by Asst. Prof. Sonal Jain

Teacher imparts the education hence the role of the teacher is of paramount importance to the present and future of a student. To honour the teachers, the Cultural Committee of Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law organized an event on 13th July, 2022 with great joy and happiness. Guru Purnima program commenced with the welcome of Principal and other staff. The students decorated the hall, wrote their hearts out for their Gurus, arranged for bouquet and cake. The function began on a happy note with the students performing a welcome dance themed Guru Vandana. Hon. Principal Dr. Mrs. Madhura Kalamkar, addressed the students and other staff. The Principal explained the role of a Guru in student's life and how we as guru learn from students in day to day life.

The program further continued with Poetry and Shayari's which were read out by the students as token of appreciation towards their Gurus. Many students expressed their gratitude towards their guru in their life by writing anonymous messages to the Principal and other staff. The Principal appreciated and thanked all the students for their efforts in successfully conducting the program. The program was concluded with Vote of Thanks by Asst. Prof. Sonal Jain and National Anthem.
