Report of celebration of Shivjayanti on 22nd February 2023

Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj is considered as the bravest warrior, wisest planner and finest administrator in the globe. He established 'Swarajya' by taking every section of society with him and laid the foundation of Great Maharashtra. Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's Jayanti is celebrated on 19th February to commemorate his legacy across the globe.

On 22nd February 2023, Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law celebrated Shiv Jayanti with great zeal at Saboo Hall of Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law. The programme commenced with Shiv-Garjana sung by Mr. Jay Magar. Assistant Professor Mr. Amar Salve delivered a welcome address. It was followed by lighting of a lamp in front of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's frame. Later Our Principal Dr. [Mrs.] Madhura Kalamkar, highlighted the significance of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj in the history of Maharashtra.

The programme witnessed eloquent speeches by FYBLS students. Ms. Irad Mansoori described the important events in the life of Shivaji Maharaj. Mr. Monish Chitnis explained the administration i.e. Ashtapradhan Mandal and highlighted the significance of his economic policies. Ms. Jasmeen Shaikh in her speech stressed Maharaj's fight against injustice in society and how Maharaj ensured justice for all. It was followed by a speech by Mr. Habibur Ansari in which he threw light upon the war policy of Shivaji Maharaj. Ms. Prachi Singh enlightened the audience about the historical significance of forts in Maharashtra. Mr. Ankush Malik in his speech described the legacy of Shivaji Maharaj and appealed to everyone to follow in Maharaj's footsteps in daily life.

The cultural performances rose to the glory of the programme. Ms. Arya Sawant from SYBLS performed an energetic dance on the song 'Jay Bhavani'. It was followed by a magnificent Powada [Folk Song] performed by SYBLS and TYBLS students which explored the valor of Shivaji Maharaj's astute planning and execution in escaping from Aurangzeb's Prison in Agra. Assistant Professor Mrs. Saisha Ghosalkar sang Jai Jai Maharashtra Maza, a song which describes Maharashtra's social, economic and political contribution to the national growth. The Art Exhibition on the 'Life of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj' was also organized in which students drew/painted important incidents of the life of Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj.
