REPORT OF GANDHI JAYANTI CELEBRATION 2022

On 3rd October, the HVPS College of Law organized a Short Movie Making Competition in commemoration of Gandhi Jayanti, the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation. The competition aimed to pay homage to the ideals and principles of Mahatma Gandhi and promote his message of peace, non-violence, and social justice through the medium of short films.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from students across various departments and disciplines, showcasing their creativity and talent in filmmaking. Participants were tasked with creating short films that reflected the timeless values and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, as well as addressing contemporary social issues inspired by his vision for a better society.

The judging panel comprised esteemed faculty members and industry professionals, who evaluated the entries based on criteria such as originality, relevance to the theme, technical proficiency, and overall impact.

The short films presented a diverse range of narratives and themes, including:

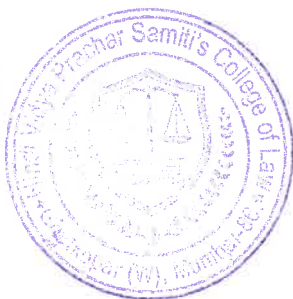

- Gandhian philosophy of non-violence and Satyagraha.
- Struggles for social justice, equality, and human rights.
- Environmental sustainability and community empowerment.
- Empathy, compassion, and the spirit of service.
- Contemporary issues such as poverty, discrimination, and communal harmony.

The competition provided a platform for students to express their perspectives on pressing social issues and engage in meaningful dialogue on the relevance of Gandhian values in today's world.

Program outcome

The Short Movie Making Competition on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti served as a tribute to the enduring legacy of Mahatma Gandhi and his principles of truth, justice, and compassion. The event not only celebrated the life and teachings of the Mahatma but also inspired students to become agents of positive change in society, carrying forward his legacy of peace and non-violence.
