Teachers day- 2022

In India, every year September 5th is celebrated as National Teachers Day to pay tribute to the first Vice President and Second President of India Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan's. He was born in September 5, 188. He was a renowned scholar and recipient of the Bharat Ratna. He had great faith in education and was also famous as a scholar, diplomat, teacher and President of India.

Teachers Day is celebrated by the IQAC Committee of Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti of Law College, where all initiatives were taken by students. Due to Ganapati festival on 5th September, this day was celebrated by the college on 7th September 2022.

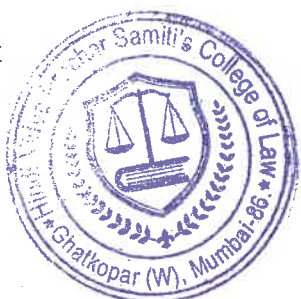

The program was held at 9.30 am in college MPSS Hall. The students welcomed the teachers with hand-made Greeting cards and roses. The program coordinator welcomed all the faculty and students and wished them a Happy Teacher's Day. The program started with the lighting of the lamp. In-charge Principal- Dr. (Mrs.) Madhura Kalamkar Madam addressed the audience on the occasion of Teacher's Day, she highlighted the importance of teacher-student relationship for the growth and development of the nation. After that, College Students Council President Siddhi Sawant (TYLLB) presented her thoughts on the occasion of Teacher's Day. The entire program was anchored by Chanchal Singh (4th year BLS) and Riya Gupta (4th year BLS).

The students had organized fun games for the teachers. The winners were felicitated with chocolates. Tejaswita Singh, a TYBLS student also shared her thoughts on Teacher's Day. Musical Jam Session created a new atmosphere in the program where Aditya Deshmukh (FYBLS) and Soham Parale (TYBLS) played the Tabla and clap box. Apoorva Bhosle (TYBLS) sang a self-composed song on the theme Teacher's day. Students made a short video and shared their thoughts about the teacher. An atmosphere filled with joy and pride.

The event concluded with a cake cutting, in which a student- Afroz Shaikh (TYBLS) prepared a cake for the teachers, followed by a group photo.

Lastly, all the teachers thank the students for showing respect and love towards the teachers.
