NOTICE

All the students of LL.M. (Business Law and Criminal Law Groups) are hereby informed that the online submission of Practical Examination Projects, namely Book Review, Case Commentary, and Research Paper, shall be email to the respective official email IDs of the Business Law Group and Criminal Law Group. The last date for submission of all three projects is 26th February 2026, and students must strictly submit their projects on or before 12:00 PM (Noon) on the prescribed date. No submission will be accepted after the stipulated time under any circumstances.

All three projects must be submitted in Word file format (.doc/.docx). Students are also required to attach, in the same email, the Plagiarism Report of the Research Paper, with a similarity index below or up to 10%, generated through Turnitin or DrillBit. Students must ensure that all required documents are properly attached before sending the email.

Further, students are informed that the hard copies of all three projects must be submitted in spiral-bound form on the day of the classroom teaching session. The college will provide the prescribed initial pages of the projects, including the Cover Page, Declaration, Certificate, and Acknowledgement. Students are required to incorporate these pages in their respective projects and fill in all necessary details accurately before submission.

Students are strictly instructed to be well prepared for the classroom teaching session, as they will be required to present it. The schedule for the classroom session will be announced shortly.
