Police Station Report

The Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law organized a Police Station Visit for the 3rd year BLS student as the part of their Practical Training I at Chirag Nagar Police Station, Ghatkopar (West) on 4th August, 2022, with 60 Students. The visit was coordinated by Asst. Prof. Saisha Ghosalkar and Asst. Prof. Sonal Jain. The students were guided by PI (Admin) Mr. Bhadang and Mr. Mulani about the physical structure of a Police Station, nature of duties performed by the Police officers in a police Station, working of the Police Station and students. They also answered the questions put forth by the students.

They also explained the students about the procedure to maintain Police Diary, F.I.R, Registration of Cyber Complaint Report, availability of separate lock up for women, Exterment, Record Room and the process of Detection Room. During the visit the students are made aware of the functioning of the police station, the role of police in society and the procedural aspects of complaint. A discussion with the Senior Police Inspector and other officials in the Police Station helped the students understand the procedure and the process of investigation.

The entire session was very interactive and included very informative discussions. The visit proved to be very beneficial to the students who had an enriching learning experience on the practical, everyday functioning of the law.

As a BLS. LL. B student, there can be several objectives for visiting a police station, such as:

1. Legal research: BLS. LL. B students may need to conduct legal research on a particular case or topic related to criminal law. Visiting a police station can provide them with a better understanding of the procedures followed during criminal investigations and how evidence is collected, which can be useful in their legal research.
2. Practical exposure: Visiting a police station can provide BLS. LL. B students with practical exposure to the workings of the criminal justice system. They can observe how the police carry out their duties, how suspects are arrested, and how investigations are conducted.
3. Interviewing witnesses or suspects: BLS. LL. B students may need to interview witnesses or suspects as part of their legal research or for the preparation of a case. Visiting a police station can provide them with an opportunity to interview such individuals under the supervision of a police officer.
4. Networking: Visiting a police station can also provide BLS. LL. B students with an opportunity to network with police officers and other legal professionals, which can be beneficial for their future careers.

The outcomes of a police station visit for BLS. LL. B students may include:

1. Improved understanding of criminal law: Visiting a police station can provide BLS. LL. B students with a better understanding of criminal law and the criminal justice system.
2. Enhanced research skills: BLS. LL. B students can develop their research skills by observing and learning about the procedures followed during criminal investigations.
3. Increased practical knowledge: Visiting a police station can provide BLS. LL. B students with practical knowledge about the workings of the criminal justice system, which can be useful in their future legal practice.
4. Networking opportunities: BLS. LL. B students can make valuable connections with police officers and other legal professionals, which can be beneficial for their future careers.
